Believed Morgan Willed Bulk of His Estate to Members of Family.

LEDYARD HAS HIS WILL

Contents of Document Will Be Made Public Saturday or Monday.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, April 16.—J. P. Morgan's fill will be made public Saturday or londay. Meagre information to this Monday. Meagre information to this effect was obtained at the Morgan banking house to-day.

The document is in the possession of Lewis Cass Ledyard, an old friend and adviser of Mr. Morgan.

"Mr. Morgan was broad-minded, public-spirited and generous in life," said a close friend of the late financier to-day discussions the possible disposition. day, discussing the possible disposition which he has made of his fortune and art possessions, "and I think it will be found he has not departed from his ideals in his will." The inference drawn from the re-mark is that Mr. Morgan has left his superb art colection to the city of New Aside from this bequest there is growing belief that Mr. Morgan has left but little to any one outside his immediate family. No great amounts, it is believed, have been willed to charities. "So far as he was personally concerned," said this friend, "one might almost say that money was a mere incident to Mr. Morgan. He never hoarded money. He was a prodigious spender. He summoned special trains as the average man calls a taxicab. He poured out money indulging his artistic tastes. tistic tastes. He gave freely to all worthy causes. In short, he was not prone to count the cost.

"Another peculiar trait was the habit he had of paying for things but once a year in order to avoid the bother of monthly payments." of monthly payments. The persons with whom he dealt knew of this habit, and charged him more than others, but and charged him more than others, but he was willing in order to save the bother of monthly settlements. "These were the traits which made the cost of living for him so tremen-

Do not get the idea," continued this informant, "that Mr. Morgan died a poor man. He left probably $50,000.

Angelo was not allowed to remain in the papal chamber long, and it was he never was a tremendously rich man with much relief that the attendant the paper chamber long, and it was been every was a tremendously rich man as fortunes are estimated these days. "It was not his own money but his transcendant power to concentrate the money of others which enabled him to do the big things he did."

Another fact current in Wall Street to-day will surprise most persons, Mr. Morgan probably dominated more railtook than any other man in the world; yet it is declared his stock holdings will be found to be very meagre because he held it to be the best policy to keep his capital in liquid form and ready for instant use.

The bulk of his fact was a trensendously rich man as fortunes are estimated these days. With much relief that the attendant with the attendant with the attendant as fortunes are estimated these days. With much relief that the attendant with much applied that the attendant as fortunes are estimated these days. With much relief that the attendant with much applied the attendant as fortunes are estimated these days. With much relief that the attendant as fortunes are estimated these days. With much relief that the attendant as fortunes are estimated these days. With much relief that the attendant as fortunes are estimated these days. With much relief that the attendant as fortunes as a fortune as apparent that the disposal of the coffece as represented, fulfills the province of the report, as the occasional paroxysms of coughing to treatment deritates somewhat from the hopeful affection is not responding to treatment deritates somewhat from the hopeful affection is not responding to treatment deritates somewhat from the hopeful affection is not responding to treatment deritates somewhat from the hopeful affection is not responding to treatment deritates somewhat from the hopeful affection is not responding to treatment deritates somewhat from the hopeful affection is not responding to treatment deritates somewhat from the hopeful affection is not responding to treatment deritates somewhat from the hopeful affection is not responding to treatment deritate relapses, renders the physicians unable to determine with any degree of accuracy when the end may be expected.

Despite the somewhat assuring butterne possibility between an air of extreme possibility between any possibility between any possibility between any possibility and also I shall make they leave the room.

All his life the Pope has been a great lover of music. The company, looking to the purchase of the latter property.

The Seaboard Air Line will spend about $2,500.000 in the next half year on track, terminal and yard facilities. treme pessimism pervades the Holy City. After the events which have transpired during the present illness of His Holiness, few persons accept with the complete preparations of the Vatican in readiness for the Pope's death, couplied with the fact that the Popular has been greatly weakened by the fever and kidney disorders from which he has suffered for some time, it is feared by all that he will not be able to railly from the attack of pneumonia with which he is now afflicted.

Brothers Are Reconciled.

In Rome. The Pope considered this permissible, but declared that all members of his family who were able to work should never receive a cent from the church.

About two months ago the Pope's among the first manifestations of his sisters made an attempt to effect a reconciliation between the brothers at a dinner in the Vatican, but during monta with which he is now afflicted.

Brothers Are Reconciled.

Angelo threw himself at the foot of he Pontiff's bed, and white his body

sively used in

Delegates and Visitors to the GOVERNMENT WILL Southern Educational Congress who are in the market for Clothing for Men, Boys or Girls, will do well to visit the South's Largest Assured by Brazil That Valor-Clothiery—the Berry Store.

"Vogue" says: "Few Americans will wear London clothes to-day—the glory of London clothes has de-parted; their prestige is no more."

lead in the world of dress. No matter where you travel, here are the clothes to keep you correctly dressed. Coats comfortable in fit, common sense in looks and reached, it was within the power of coats, $18 to $30.

Raincoats and slip-ons, $5 terests.

BERRY BAGGAGE is the safe and sane sort. Trunks, Bags and Cases from the leading factories of the world direct. Our Big Basement Department for travelers, with its Cathedral windows, presents an interesting scene to the visitor. Come and see.

O. H. BERRY & CO.

tive Venetian dialect, which he has without fever. The not get the idea," continued this used exclusively since becoming danperature was 981-2. The ctarrhal and bronchial affection is in the same con-determine with a physicians unable presents itself and also I shall make they leave the appointments failed to materialize much, as the Pope aided him to attain Angelo became angered, and then fol-transpired during the present illness of His Holiness, few persons accept the optimistic bulletins at their apparament value.

The Pope's sisters have received $100

The Pope

About two months ago the Pope's sisters made an attempt to effect a reconciliation between the brothers at a dinner in the Vatican but during ted to his brother's presence for the ternoon at the dramatic scene when first time in many years.

shook with sobs, begged forgiveness for the trouble which he has caused his brother since being elevated to the pontifical throne.

A sauve smile wreathed the emaciated face of the Pope, and in a low voice the Holy Father commanded his brother to rise and come to him. The Pope then embraced his brother and told him that he had Jong since forgiven him, as well as forgotten the disagreement. The Pope spoke in his national shock with sobs, begged forgiveness for the trouble which he has caused by the physicians to-day indicated that the condition of the Pope is practically stationary. The evening bulletin was of a more optimistic tone, as it indicated that the temperature was normal and that there had been no recurrence of the usual night fever.

To-night's bulletin on the condition of Pope Pius says:

"His Hollness passed a quiet day

The ctarrhal and Angelo was not allowed to remain in dition as this morning.

"ETTORE MARCHIAFAVA, meagre because he held it to be the best policy to keep his capital in liquid form and ready for instant use.

The bulk of his fortune, Wall Street men declare, will be found to be in bank deposits, call loans and other ready-at-hand sources.

VATICAN PREPARED

general condition which had preceded the visit.

It was learned to-night from friends of the Sarto family that the disagreement which existed among the family of Pope Pius was caused by the persistent refusal of the Pontiff to exercise his office for the benefit of any members of his family. From this viewpoint Jius X. will occupy a unique position in papal history, as it has been the custom of his predecessors to elected the visit.

It was learned to-night from friends of the reported to Cardinal Merry del Val, who personally watches at the Pope's bedside most of the day and during the early hours of the night, and later telephoned his observations to Professor Machiafava, who has been connected with the Vatican by special wire in order to avoid indiscretions. Feels Benefit of Rest.

Further improvement in the Pope's

FOR DEATH OF POPE

(Continued From First Page.)

(It has never ennobled any member of his family nor bestowed any church money upon relatives who were in straitened financial circumstances.

(It is said that Angelo, shortly after his brother was crowned Pope, suggested to him that he should raise his sisters to the rank of countess, thus giving them a place among Italian nobility. The Pope is said to have jokingly replied:

(It has never ennobled any member of his family nor bestowed any church money upon relatives who were in the was able to retain a quantity of chicken jelly and that he sleept peace-fully for a considerable time. Early in the evening he acknowledged that he was feeling the benefit of the absolute rest Imposed upon him and that he felt more inclined to sleep naturally than at any time since his illness.

(The Pope is extremely concerned at the trouble he gives to those around him, often expressing to them when the Pontiff was patriarch of Ve-

His love for music seems to have been accentuated by his illness, the Pontiff often asking for favorite hymns and chants which seemed to The most affecting scene which has accurred during the entire illness of the Holy Father took place in the papal bedchamber to-day, when Angelo Sarto, the Pope's brother, was admitted to his brother's presence for the termon at the description and politics was added to the financial disagreement, for it was said that the Pontiff denied his brother a loan at the same time.

All members of the Pope's family who are in Rome were present this after the region of the paparatic factors. Tripoli, and politics was added to the financial disagreement, for it was said that the Pontiff often asking for favorite southern as the paparatic factors and the region of the population and politics was added to the financial disagreement, for it was said that the Pontiff denied to the financial disagreement are the region of the paparatic factors. The provided the region of the paparatic factors are the region of the population of the paparatic factors are the region of the paparatic factors and the region of the paparatic factors are the region of t of a small organ in the adjoining chapel. It seemed somewhat incon-gruous, this sound of music from the next that in which the august patient suffered.

"The church and school," continued Mrs. Woodbury, "is the safest bul-wark of modern civilization." Although, after a day of spirited balloting, the delegates failed to elect the head of their ticket, a number of inlinor officers were elected. These included;

Mrs. Henry L. Mann, District of Columbia, vice-president-general in charge of the organization of chapters, Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, District of Mrs. Edward Orten, Jr., Ohio, assistant historian-general.

Mrs. George & Steruberg, District of Columbia, librarian-general.

Mrs. Williams and Vigor that makes you feel fine all over.

Go into any drug store to-day and get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. Don't mope ing secretary-general.

those were Mrs. John Van Landingham, North Carolina; Mrs. R. H. Cunningham, Kentueky, and Mrs. Thomas R. Day, Tennessee, Mrs. John C. Ames was elected vice-president-general for the term of one year only to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Laverne W. Noves, of Illinois, recently deceased.

ized Coffee Has Been Marketed.

Berry Clothes is the of To-Day.

Distinctly American styles

lead in the world of draws

Washington, April 16.—The antitrust suit against the Brazilian valorization scheme—the so-cailed coffee trust—will be dismissed within a few days by Attorney-General McReynolds, as a result of definite assurances from the Brazilian government that the 20,000 bags of coffee valued at $10,000,000, stored in New York have been sold to bona fide purchasers.

Attorney-General McReynolds to-day

Attorney-General McReynolds to-day said the United States would accept Brazil's assurances that the coffee no longer was in control of the valorization committee. Brazil declares the coffee has been sold to eighty roasters in thirty-three cities of twenty Amer-practical in style; soft cloth, the United States government to seize the coffee under a new law passed by soft lapels, soft fronts.

soft lapels, soft fronts.

As to colors and fabrics, come in and see our liberal display from $15 to $40 for Light-weight Spring overoats, $18 to $30.

Raincoats and slip-ons $5

Government officials were confident to-night that the moral effect of the amicable adjustment by which the United States government accomplishes its purpose of seiling the coffee would operate against any future attempt at valorization in this country, but the 20.000 bags of coffee were part of the security for a loan made by the Brazilian State of Sao Paulo and guaranteed by the republic of Brazil. The United States and Brazil reached an understanding December 10 that if the coffee was marketed by April 10 the suit Government officials were confident was marketed by April 10 the suit would be dismissed.

A statement issued to-night by the

A statement issued to-night by the Department of Justice said:
"Good faith assurances have been presented by the Brazilian government that the understanding was fulfilled in letter and spirit before the date set and the entire amount of coffee dispused of to alreby dealers in thirty. posed of to eighty dealers in thirty-three cities of twenty States. These assurances are accepted and the suit will be dismissed accordingly. It is apparent that the disposal of the cof-fee as represented, fulfills the province

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Cape Charles, Va., April 16.—During a quarrel at Daughtery, a small of internal Revenue R. E. Cabell, who village, two miles from Accomac, this will vacate his office as soon as Colonel will vacate his office as soon as Colonel village, two miles from Accomac, this evening, Dorsey Chambers, twenty-two years old, shot and mortally wounded his father, W. A. Chambers, a prosperous farmer. It is said the father had thrown the son to the ground in a scuffle, and was threatening him with a knife, when the son drew a revolver from his pocket and fired, the ball entering his father's neck and passing through his cheek. His recovery is doubtful.

MAY PURCHASE LINE

will vacate his office as soon as Colonel W. H. Osborne, of Greensboro, N. C. who has been named to succeed him. Is sworn in, has no idea of running for Governor of Virginia or of becoming a candidate for any other office at this authorized by him.

At the present time there are only two things occupying Mr. Cabell's mind—getting the affairs of his office in shape for his departure and getting himself settled in his Richmond law office as soon as he leaves Washington. If he has any idea of running for Governor of Virginia or of becoming a candidate for any other office at this revolver from his pocket and fired, the ball entering his father's neck and passing through his cheek. His recovery is doubtful.

BRYAN ACCEPTS INVITATION.

Will Deliver Address at Washington and Lee University.

Lexington, Va., April 16.—Secretary Bryan, of the State Department, has accepted an invitation to make the principal address at the inauguration of President Smith, of Washington and Lee University, on May 7.

Greatest Malaria Remedy Known.

Goes Right Into Your Blood and Drives Out Every Particle of Poison From Head to Foot.

Columbia, chaplain-general.

Mrs. Julius C. Burrows, Michigan, corresponding secretary-general.

Mrs. Julius C. Burrows, Michigan, you feel in just one day after using S. S. S. S. for malaria. This wonderful rem-Mrs. Cayus M. Brunbaugh, District of Columbia, registrar-general,
Mrs. Joseph E. Ransdell, Louisiana,
treasurer-general.

Mrs. Joseph E. Ransdell, Louisiana, treasurer-general. Mrs. Charles Wesley Bassett, Mary-land, historian-general. Bassett, Mary-right, enjoy meals, laugh heartily and olumbia, librarian-general.

Mrs. William C. Boyle, Ohio, record-around with that malarial despair; it is only three of the ten vice-president-teneral, balletter of the vice-presidentgeneral ballotted for were elected; can feel just as bright, just as vigorous, these were Mrs. John Van Panding- just as hearty as when a youngster if you Noves, of Illinois, recently deceased.

Mrs. Theodore C. Bates and Mrs.
Erastus G. Putnam were elected honorary vice-presidents-general. Mrs.
Eliza O. Denniston was returned as editor of the official magazine of the official magazine of the order. and drive malaria out of your system.

Idea of Entering Lists Against Stuart.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch 1 of Internal Revenue R. E. Cabell, who He denied emphatically that any will vacate his office as soon as Colonel branch of the revolutionists is in favor

S. Davies Warfield Is Carrying On Segotiations.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, April 16.—S. Davies Warfield, chairman of the Seaboard Air Line, is in town carrying on negotiations with A. H. Post, vice-president of the North and South Carolina Railway Company, looking to the purchase. rice has any free of running for the first Virginia Republicans cannot see any-thing like a victory in sight for them-Byrd will not receive a presidential thing like a vietory in sight for them by the survey in the immediate future. What they are hoping for, it is learned, is that the Democrats may make such a poor showing with the tariff that there are hoping for, it is learned, is a poor showing with the tariff that there is poor showing with the tariff that there is poor showing with the tariff that there is poor showing in Virginia. Until that contingency arrives, however, it is not believed that any of the Republican believed that the has no such idea in his mind at this time.

CHILDREN RESCUE BABY.

CHILDREN RESCUE BABY.

CHILDREN RESCUE BABY.

Timely Arrival of President Leads to Infant's Redford, Is and the told The Times-Dispatch, Is and the serving in his automobile, came upon a group of children who was many the contingency and provided this evening in his automobile, came upon a group of children who will be a reverse of the contingency and the provided that the contingency arrives however, it is not believed that any of the Republicant that the has no such idea in his mind at this time.

CHILDREN RESCUE BABY.

CHILDREN RESCUE BABY.

Timely Arrival of President Leads to Infant's Redford, who was in the service of this railroad for thirty-three syras, was group of children who was many the service of this railroad for thirty-three syras, was form the contingency and the provided this evening in his automobile, came upon a group of children who were at a loss to know how to proceed when the physician leaded with water, the hole having been dug to receive an electric light pole.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Is a possible that the provided the provided and the hole and the work of the contingency of t

Harrelson---Gilbert,
Lynchburg, Va., April 16.—Miss Alice Mabel Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B., Gilbert, of this eity, was married Tuesday afternoon at her home to Henry L. Harrelson, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Ayres, pastor of College Hill Baptist Church. The groom is an Atlanta traveling man, and after a Northern wedding trip the couple will live in that city.

Patterson.—Simmons.

Newbern, N. C. April 16.—The marriage of Miss Isabelle Simmons, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Furnifold M. Simmons, and Dr. Joseph F. Patterson, of this city, was celebrated in Christs Episcopal Church this afternoon. The wedding yows were assumed in the presence of a large and brilliant assemblage. Senator and Mrs. Simmons entertained the bridal party and guests to-night. Patterson---Simmons.

Archbishop Is Dend. Guatemala City, April 16.—The Most Rev. Richardo Casanovay Estrada, Archbishop of Guatemala and of all Central America, died Monday. He was consecrated in 1886.

and burning ranches and even murdering pacific residents. At Sierra de Matchuapil, in the State of Zacatecas. he said Federal troops burned all the buildings on several ranches because the rurales under him who revolted, were permitted to quench their thirst at these places.

Colonel Garcia said the State of Zacatecas is controlled by the revolutionists under the leadership of Colonel Eulalio Gutierez.

Ultimatum Delivered. Serapio Aguirre, member of the Mexican National Congress from the central district of Coahuila, also arrived here to-day enroute to Monclova. Coahuila, to join Governor Carranza. He declared that the Constitutionalists of Annapolis, Md. Coahuila, to Join Governor Carranza.

He declared that the Constitutionalists had given their ultimatum to the Huerta government, which was:

1. The immediate resignation of Huerta and his Cabinet.

2. The departure from the republic forthwith of Garral Huerta General Huerta

As a tonic to help in the recovery of strength after debilitating illness, while the tonic stimulant is equal to Duffy's

Pure Malt Whiskey taken in doses as directed.

readily assimilable form the nourishment and tonic properties contained in grain, the great sustaining

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is made from ripe, selected barley and other grains, all thoroughly malted and is free from the injurious by-products contained in the ordinary beverage whiskies. Duffy's is of a higher standard of purity than is required by the U.S.

Pharmacopoeia and is used, endorsed and relied upon by

"Be sure you get Duffy's—It's reliable."

Sold in sealed bottles only at $1.00, by most druggists, grocers and dealers.

The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co.

physicians in practice because of its known purity.

food of mankind.

This tonic gives to the sick and weakly in a vital forces are still low, no

Retiring Commissioner Has No Felix Diaz, General Huerta, General County, He was a Confederate veteran, and lost a leg at Manassas. He was

"This revolution will continue," he declared, "until the last evidence of this effort to re-establish military government in Mexico has been wiped out and civil government and political jus-tice has been again enthroned."

he will be in position to accept the new

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Heathsville, Va., April 16.—Jett Clarke died of typhoid pneumonia last night at his home near Oldhams, aged about twenty-four years. Interment will be in Gibson Baptist Cemetery.

Mrs. James R. Senwell.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Gloucester Courthouse, Va., April 16.—Mrs. James R. Seawell, widow of William Watt C. Seawell, of Gloucester County, died this afternoon in her ninetieth year at the home of her sonin-law, Walter R. Buck, Sadler's Nock, Gloucester County. She was the eldest member of the Abingdon P. E. Church, in Gloucester county. She was the eldest member of the Abingdon P. E. Church, in Gloucester, where she will be buried at 3 o'clock Friday by the side of her husband. She is survived by seven children—Joseph Seawell, of Richmond; William Scawell, of Gloucester; W. Tyler Seawell, of Norfolk; Jack Seawell, of Norfelk; Mrs.
John A. Edwards, Mrs. Walter R. Buck
and Mrs. J. A. Rowe, all of Gloucester County.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Heathsville, Va., April 16.—The little daughter of William Tones died this morning at her home, near Templemans. The interment will be in Menokin Baptist Cemetery.

George W. Dull. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., April 16.—George

DEATHS

at the residence of her son, J. E. Ellis, 1829 West Cary Street, Richmond, Va., MRS, ETTA CRAFTON ELLIS, widow of Leonard C. Ellis, in the sixty-seventh year of her age. Fuperal April 17 at 3:30 P. M. from Tabernacle Baptist Church, corner Grove Avenue and Meadow.

SMITH.—Died. April 14, 1913, at his residence, 1115 Pink Street, ALBERT SMITH. SMITH.
Funeral THIS (Thursday) AFTERNOON at 1 o'clock from the resi-

CARTER.—Passed away at 1:40 Å. M., April 13, 1913, NASH VAUGHAN, son of Robert Nash and Ekle Vaughan Carter, at the home of his parents, Fulton Hill, Richmond, Va., aged one year, one month and ten Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven, and Jesus laid .His hands on them and blessed them.

was one of the first to enlist in the Fifty-second Regiment, infantry. He Fifty-second Regiment, infantry. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Shaver. Dr. William Carroll, of Roanoke, is one of his three surviving children.

Alexander Waddell May.

I Special to The Times-Dispatch. I Staunton, Va., April 16.—Alexander Waddell May, elerk of the Supreme Court of Appeals, died about midnight from acute gastritis, from which he had been suffering for several days. Mr. May was nearly thirty-seven years of age, and was the son of Mrs. Kitty L. and the late George W. May. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Mary Bagby, of this city, and by his mother, two sisters and two brothers. The latter are Mrs. S. P. Christian, of Wheeling, W. Va.; Mrs. Charles M. Drummond, of Woodruff, S. C.; Harry May, of Washington, and Lomax May, of Pennsylvania. He had been clerk of the Court of Appeals for about four years, and previous to that had been for many years deauty for the surviver of the court of Appeals for about four years, and previous to that had been for many years deauty for the surviver of the court of Appeals for about four years, and previous to that had been for many years deauty for the court of Appeals for about four years are the survivers of the court of Appeals for about four years are the survivers of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty for the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty for the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty to the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty to the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty to the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty to the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty to the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty to the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deauty to the court of the court of Appeals for about four years deaut to the court of Appeals for about four the court of the court of Appeals for about four the court of t

Mrs. Marion G. Snyder.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Berryville, Va., April 16.—Mrs, Maria
G. Snyder, wife of David H. Snyder, died at her home here on Monday afternoon, aged seventy-three years, after a prolonged illness. She was J. M. McClure, of Perryman, Hartford the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. County, Maryland, where she was born, and is the fast of her family. She was married to Mr. Sayder in Alliness. married to Mr. Snyder in altimore, and they lived for a number of years on a large estate near Castleman's Ferry Funeral services were held at her late residence on Wednesday, and Rev. Edward Wall officiated.

save millions of ties and tempers and min-utes for millions of men. This thought led us to call our latest Stidewell model "Panama" —illustrated above. 15c.—2 for 25c. All Posalar Styles. All Stass, All Good Dealers. HALL, HARTWELL & CO., Trey, N. Y.

Judge for yourself

Have you smotted one lately?

El Principe de Gales

MILD: FRAGRANT: DELICIOUS

Crop of 1912 Vuelta Abajo, exclu-

El Principe de Gales

and pronounced by connoisseurs to be the finest Havana Tobacco grown on the Island of Cuba since 1905.

Clear Havana